CLARA BARTON VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL

Reuben Fuchs, Principal

901 Classon Avenue
Brooklyn, New York

We dedicate this book to our men who are fighting for freedom and democracy in Vietnam.

Thank God

For every one man who cries for war
There are ten crying for peace.
Thank God.
For every one man who says, "Let's hate",
There are ten saying, "Let's love".
Thank God
For every one man who says, "Let's kill him",
There are ten who cry, "Let him live".
Thank God.
For every one who says, "Let's take",
There are ten more standing by to give.
Thank God.
For every man who condemns his country
There are ten more who love and would fight for it.
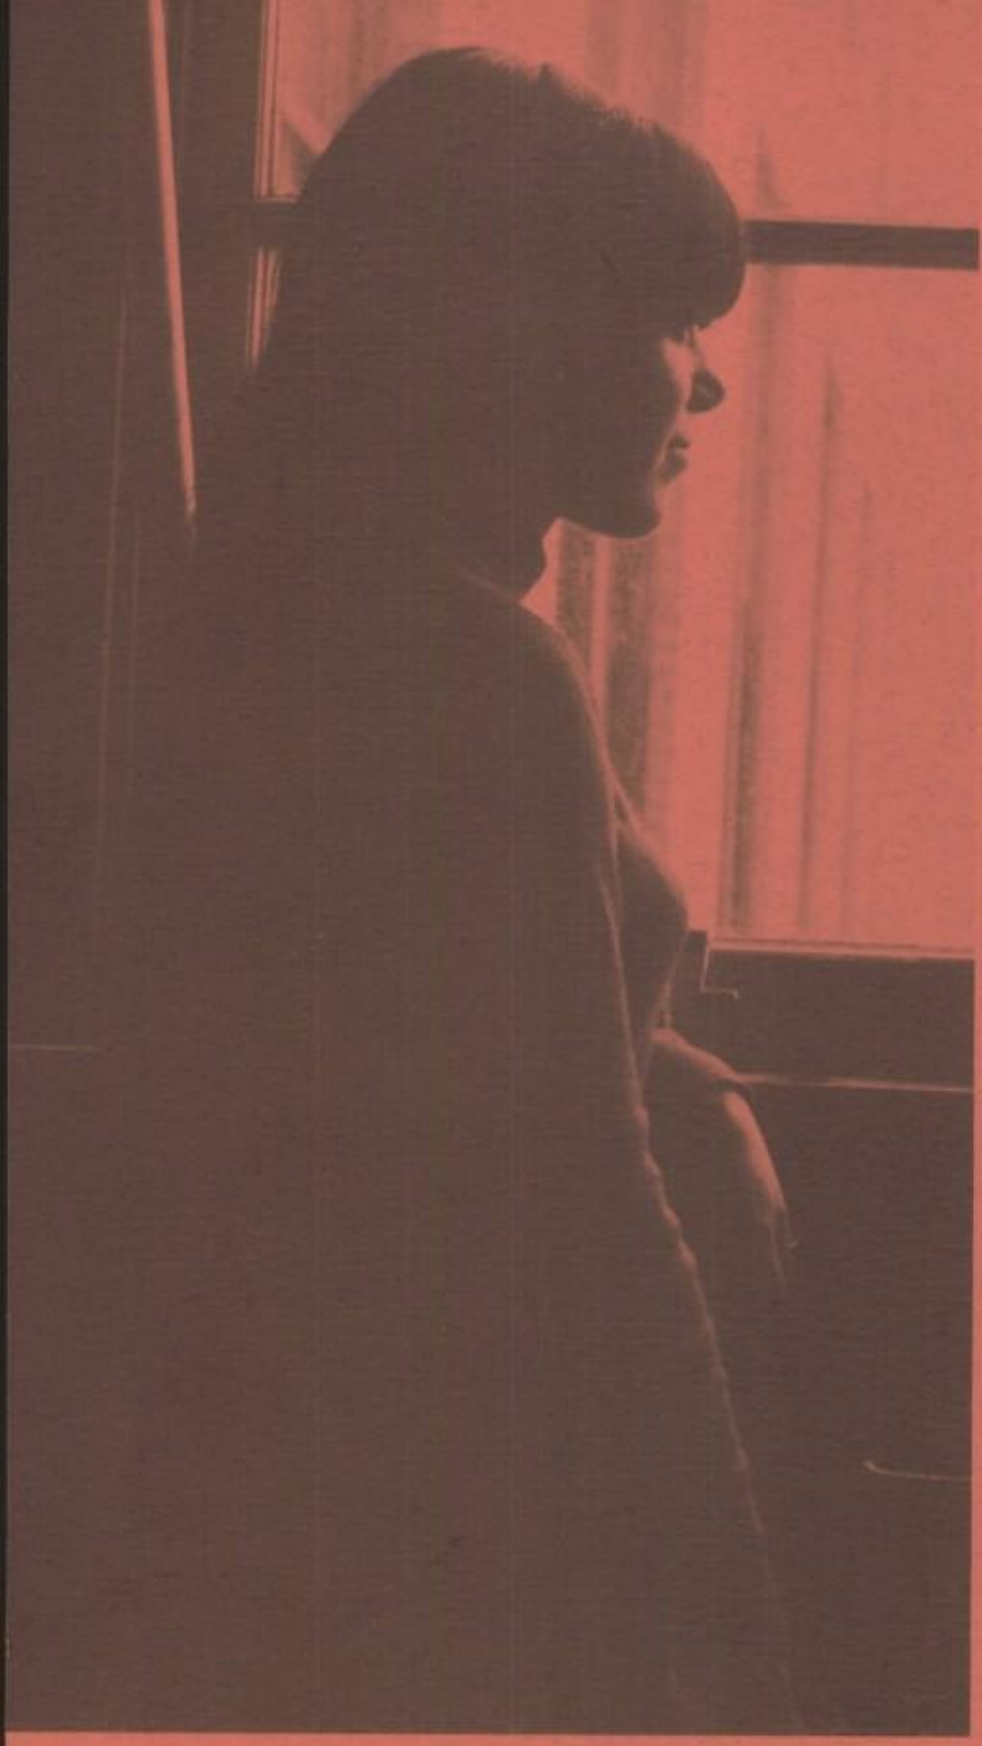
And I thank God.

Annette Carter



My Pot of Gold

One day while I was walking around in a daze,
I spotted a four year rainbow
in the mist.
Since I had heard the tales about the pot of gold found at the end of every rainbow, I decided to try my luck.
I entered at the beginning and chose the course that I would take.
At time things were hard and often
I thought maybe I wouldn't make it.
But strange things happened within that rainbow.
The colors came to life with voices of guidance and trust.
A radiant light shown in front of me and the voices beckoned me on.
There was joy within and I found my inner self and the things that I was capable of doing.
Time has taken me along with it to the end of the rainbow.
I can see my pot of gold and I realize that it is almost truly mine.

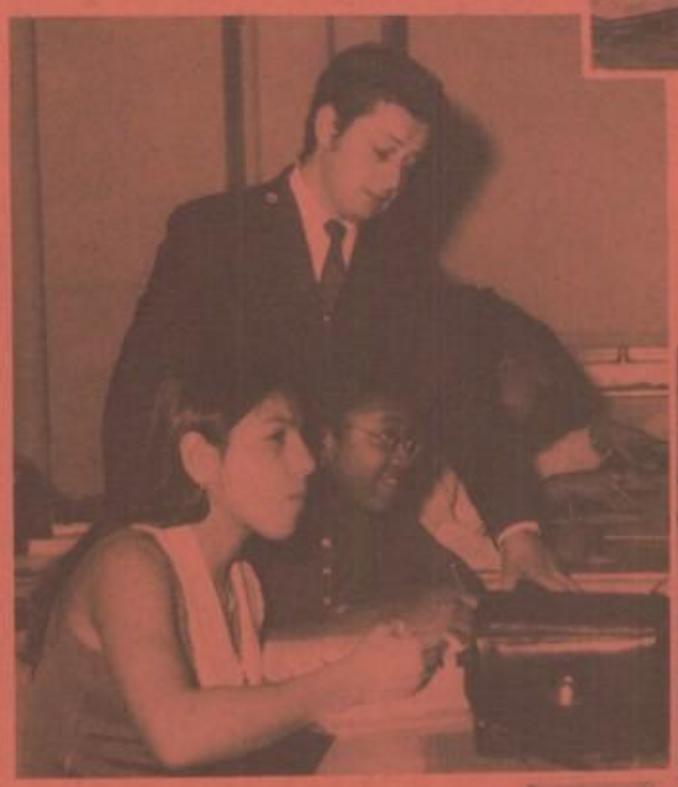
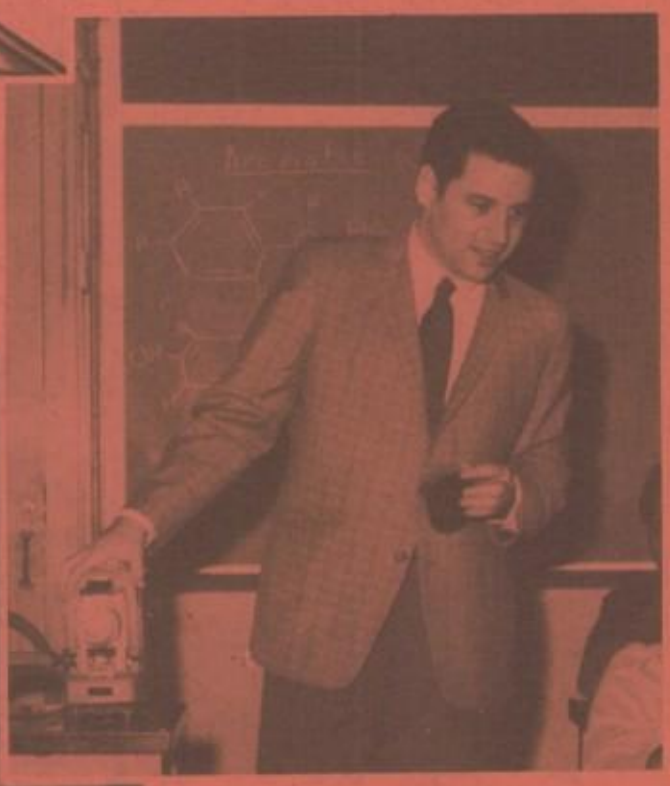
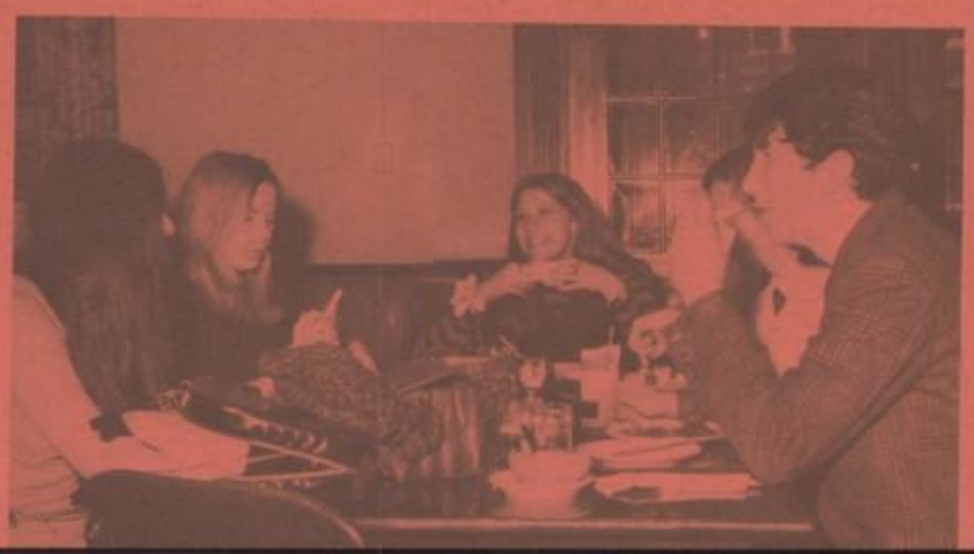
Marcia Irving







TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1970:

Dear Girls:

As you come to the end of your school days at Clara Barton and look back, it must be apparent that no graduating class has been through more difficult and tumultuous years. You have seen a time when teen-agers have revolted against authority because they were of the belief that they were not receiving the type of education they thought they needed.

It is significant that our Barton girls went about their business without interruption. The only difficulties experienced were from outsiders. Your behaviour demonstrated your sincerity and dedication. It is a credit to your teachers. We know your faith was well placed.

We know that you are stepping into a future containing many negatives in the social climate. Nevertheless, you CAN maintain high hopes. Why? The answer is a three-fold one:

You have been given the opportunity to gain a basic education.

In addition, we have exposed you to a job-training program that will give you financial independence.

Finally, with open admissions starting this year in the City University of New York, it has been made possible for you to continue your education in a community college.

It would be unrealistic of me to deny the fact that you will face many problems in the post-graduation world. Prejudice? Discrimination? Of course, but remember that we have made progress and are continuing to do so. Do not permit cynics and disappointed ones to discourage you. Continue in your determination to help make the world a better place for yourselves and your children.

We hope you will look back on your Barton years as happy years. We hope you will continue many of the friendships begun here.

It is a way of life, that the young bird must leave the nest. Fly far and high.

May our hopes and prayers strengthen you in that journey.

Fondly,

Reuben Fuchs

Mr. O'Beirne
Faculty Adviser

Mr. O'Beirne explains a proposed project.

GO LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

This year the G.O. on the suggestion of Mr. O'Beirne, their faculty adviser, instituted leadership conferences. These were held once a month on school time and were attended by the presidents and vice-presidents of all the official classes. At these meetings the girls suggested programs for the year, then examined their possibility and finally accepted or rejected the ideas. The decisions made at the meetings were reported to the student body through their own class officers thereby ensuring greater communication between the students and their G.O. Student opinion on some programs was obtained through the conference members and resulted on the acceptance or rejection of some projects. Out of their meetings came such projects as the Turkey Raffle, the very successful fall drive for G.O. members, the Miss Clara Barton Contest and the talent show.

Girls consider a new project.

SENIOR COUNCIL

Senior Council is composed of representatives from the various senior classes. The girls coordinate senior activities such as the senior trip, the senior prom, and the senior day activities. They also collect the graduation fees from the girls.

THE BAD, BEAUTIFUL, MIND-BLOWING YEARS

The language of the Sixties was vivid, laced with allusion to drugs, sex and war;
A bad trip referred to an LSD experience,
To "tell it like it is, man," was to level with,
"You dig, baby?" meant do you get it?
and "you turn me on, equaled I like you.
"Hell, no, we won't go!" was a draftee chant,
"Burn, baby, burn" was the black activists' slogan.
"Bread was needed to buy "pot, grass or hash,"
And "stoned," was drunk on drugs or liquor.
"Busted" implied jailed, and "uptight"
was to be tense, and, of course . . . "cop out", was to give up, to quit, now baby . . .

Those were the Years of the Sixties.

Man!!!

MAN

Take a black man's soul,
Take a white man's heart,
Put them both together
And you've made a darn good start—
To MAN!
Who cares about his race?
A MAN is heart and soul,
Not just a body and face!

This world of ours is divided,
Into Water, Soil, and Air
But MAN must unite with MAN,
All God's great gift to share!

Every MAN seeks justice,
Demands his basic rights,
Thrives in brotherly love,
And shines in "God's Free Light"

God didn't plan this world of ours
For brother to be torn from brother.
Join your souls
And join your hearts,
Each into each other.

Take a black man's heart,
Take a white man's soul,
Put them both together
And you've made a darn good start—
To MAN!

Broda Parker—Miss Clara Barton

The idea of beginning the Miss Clara Barton tradition came from the G.O. officers monthly leadership meetings. The girls were nominated from the four grades; then the class presidents chose two representatives from each class. The first Miss Clara Barton and her three runners-up were then chosen by a vote of all G.O. members. And so a new tradition began at CBVHS with Miss Broda Parker.

ASSEMBLY

After the pledge Mr. Glassman directed our singing of the national anthem while Mr. Siegal played the piano.

The Lincoln Center Singers gave us examples of old madrigals . . .

while our own Glee Club gave us more modern tunes at another assembly.

Pat Lewis' solo was a high point of the Glee Club Concert.

PROGRAMS

. . . We will all remember the honor paid to Dr. Martin Luther King by the 11th year nursing girls last year. The dialogue and dances were their own original work.

. . . then in the spring there was OLIVER

The program was put on through the efforts of the Chorus and a number of the Seniors. Their hard work gave us a very enjoyable assembly.

Thanksgiving '69 brought us the first efforts of the Drama Club—a fun-filled play that delighted everyone.

Here Mr. Sica, one of the moderators, helps set up some props.

Dr. Martin Luther King day was commemorated by an assembly of our girls' thoughts about the late Civil Rights leader.

The Chorus contributed with freedom songs.

At Christmas the Drama Club's gift was their version of "!Twas the night before Christmas".

Mrs. Dorin makes up Carmen Ledue while another one of the reindeers looks on.

Father watches Santa arrive.

The Chorus added to the Christmas spirit with their carols.

To the strains of Auld Lang Syne the cast wished us a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

. . . my journey is now over. I have my pot of gold—and many fond memories besides.
